(b) the relations between the Government and the Government of India; and
(c) the relations between the Government and any other Indian State, or any foreign country.

63. A Government servant who intends to publish any document or to make any communication to the Press or to deliver any public utterance containing statements in respect of which any doubt as to the application of the restrictions imposed by rule 62 may arise, shall submit to Government a copy or draft of the document which he intends to publish or the utterance which he intends to deliver, and shall thereafter act in accordance with such orders as may be passed by Government.

Note— The rules regarding discussion of Government policy and action and publication of documents and communications apply to the Advocate General, Government Pleaders, Public Prosecutors and other Part-time Government servants.

64. Evidence before committees.— No Government servant shall give evidence before a public committee except with the previous sanction of Government.

65. No Government servant giving such evidence shall criticise the policy or decisions of the Government or any other Government.

66. Rules 64 and 65 do not apply to evidence given before statutory committees which have power to compel attendance and the giving of answers not to evidence given in judicial inquiries.

Note :— The above rules apply to Part-time Government servants also.

67. Taking part in politics and elections.— (1) No Government servant shall be a member of, or be otherwise associated with, any political party or any organisation which takes part in politics nor shall he take part in, subscribe in aid of, or assist in any other manner, any political movement or activity.

(2) It shall be the duty of every Government servant to endeavour to prevent any member of his family from taking part in subscribing in aid of or assisting in any other manner any movement or activity which is, or tends directly or indirectly to be, subversive of the Government as by law established, and where a Government servant is unable to prevent a member of his family from taking part in or subscribing in aid of, or assisting in any other manner, any such movement or activity, he shall make report to that effect to the Government.

(3) If any question arises whether any movement or activity falls within the scope of this rule, the decision of the Government thereon shall be final.

68. No Government servant shall permit any member of his family to take part in or in any way assist any movement or activity which is or tends directly or indirectly to be subversive of Government as by law established.

cultural and other art activities will not interfere with his official duties and also that his experience in service will never be exhibited in such activities. Sanction is not necessary in this case as per the provision to Rule 48 of the Kerala Government Servants' Conduct Rules, 1960.

The supervisory Officers may be directed to watch that the above conduct rule and his undertaking are scrupulously adhered to by him.

Yours faithfully,
Sd/-
For Special Secretary.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION (SERVICES — D) DEPARTMENT
CIRCULAR

No. 131592/SD2/79/GAD. † Dated, Trivandrum, 5th December 1979.

Sub:— Kerala Government Servants' Conduct Rules — Maintenance of political neutrality.

Rules 61 and 67 to 71 of the Kerala Government Servants' Conduct Rules, 1960 impose certain restrictions on Government Servants' taking part in politics and elections and also in organising, taking part, addressing or occupying a prominent position at any non-official meeting or conference.

2. In order to dispel any doubt regarding the scope of the restrictions in the above rules and to avoid instances of participation or involvement by Government servants in meetings and demonstration organised by political parties, it is hereby clarified that taking active part by a Government servant in a meeting or demonstration having any political character organised by political parties, enlisting public servants and using public utility facilities for rallies in support of any political party, arranging transport for bringing crowds for such purposes etc. would contravene the provisions in the Kerala Government Servants' Conduct Rules as such actions amount to assisting a political movement.

3. It would therefore be in the interest of Government employees themselves to desist from such activities.

G. BHASKARAN NAIR

HOME (SS — A) DEPARTMENT
CIRCULAR

No. 32148/SS-A2/80/Home. Dated, Trivandrum, 25th June 1981.

Sub:— Extremist activities — Action against Government servants — Instructions Issued.

It has come to the notice of Government that Government servants are associating themselves with the activities of Communist Party of India (Marxist Leninist) and its front organisations like Janakeeya Samakaria Vedi etc. in violation of the provisions of the Kerala Government Servants' Conduct Rules, 1960.

2. All Heads of Departments are requested that disciplinary action should be taken against Government servants who act in violation of the provisions of the Kerala Government Servants' Conduct Rules by participating in the activities of extremists and their front organisation.
