

	1. The Commission shall have the right to call for and examine any books, accounts, vouchers, receipts, bills, and other documents relating to the accounts of the Government of India or any State or any other authority to which the provisions of this Act apply, and to require any person to produce any such books, accounts, vouchers, receipts, bills, and other documents.
(iii) The Commission shall have the right to call for and examine any books, accounts, vouchers, receipts, bills, and other documents relating to the accounts of the Government of India or any State or any other authority to which the provisions of this Act apply, and to require any person to produce any such books, accounts, vouchers, receipts, bills, and other documents.	(iii) The Commission shall have the right to call for and examine any books, accounts, vouchers, receipts, bills, and other documents relating to the accounts of the Government of India or any State or any other authority to which the provisions of this Act apply, and to require any person to produce any such books, accounts, vouchers, receipts, bills, and other documents.

10

[Signature]
 Director General