Resolution passed unanimously in the Legislative Assembly on 31st

The Constitution 126th Amendment Bill passed by both Houses of the Parliament provides for extending reservation to the Scheduled Caste - Scheduled Tribe communities in the Lok Sabha and State Legislative Assemblies for further ten years. In the Bill reservation is provided to be continued till 25th January, 2030. But in the Constitution 126th Amendment Bill, no provision is made for extension of the period of representation of Anglo-Indian Communities in the Lok Sabha and State Legislative Assemblies for 10 more years which expires on 26th January, 2020, under Article 334(b) of the Constitution.
